

Sean Smith

sean.smith.2009@gmail.com
(615) 948-2710

sean-smith.me

Objective

I am a self-taught web developer seeking employment as a software engineer. My academic background and prior experience is mainly in science and research.

Skills

HTML, CSS, Javascript, jQuery, Git

Education

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville (May 2014)

Bachelors of Science in Biochemistry; Bachelors of Arts in Anthropology
Summa Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa

Research

The Rein Virology Lab, NIH (2013) : Student Intern

The Alexandre Lab, The University of Tennessee (2011 - 2014) : Student Intern

The Tyska Lab, Vanderbilt University (2012) : Student Assistant

The Kaas Lab, Vanderbilt University (2011) : Student Assistant

The Abbot Lab, Vanderbilt University (2011) : Student Assistant

UTK Dept. of Anthropology: Conducted field research in Cambodia (2012)

Employment

Firgon Outfitters: Co-Founder & Co-Owner (2015 - present)

Onsight Rock Gym: Routesetter (Jan. 2016 - present)

Climb Nashville: Routesetter & Head Routesetter (June 2014 - Oct. 2015)

The University of Tennessee: Resident Assistant (2012 - 2013)

Service/Leadership

UTK Habitat for Humanity Campus Chapter (2011 - 2014)

Positions Held: President, Officer, Fundraising Director

Played a key role in organizing and leading an annual fundraising event, a 5K Mud-Run, for 3 years in a row, raising a total of approximately $9,600

Honors/Awards

— Selected as a Finalist for the NIH Oxford-Cambridge Scholars Program, 2014

— Inductee to the Phi Beta Kappa Society, 2013

— Awarded the C.W. Fite Fellowship for Outstanding Professional Promise, 2013

— Inductee to the Eta Sigma Phi Society (ή συνουσία φιλελλήνων), 2012

References

Dr. Alan Rein, National Institutes of Health: reina@mail.nih.gov

Dr. De Ann Pendry, UTK Department of Antropology: dpendry@utk.edu

Archie Ellis, CEO, Autism Breakthrough Foundation: aellis@breakthroughknoxville.com